Droplets: Short Talks and Performances about H₂O

Co-sponsored by the Tufts University Art Gallery and the Tufts Institute of the Environment

Thursday, November 8th, 2012
7-8 pm: Student presentations
8-9 pm: Reception with refreshments and live music

In conjunction with the exhibition FoodWaterLife/Lucy+Jorge Orta, the Tufts University Art Gallery and the Tufts Institute of the Environment are sponsoring a night of student presentations on the theme of water.

Guidelines
1. The presentation could highlight your academic research or personal interest.
2. It can take a variety of forms: PowerPoint, video, dance performance...
3. It must educate, entertain or persuade the audience.
4. It must be between 5 to 10 minutes in length.

Who can apply?
All Tufts undergraduate and graduate students, in any discipline. If it has to do with water, we’d love to see your application!

Submissions due by Sunday, September 16, 2012. Please see attached application form. Submissions and questions should be directed to dorothee.perin@tufts.edu
