

Alumni Panel

Working in Global Operations, Research and Consulting

Friday, April 29, 2 PM – 3:30 PM

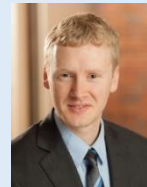

(reception to follow)

Sophia Gordon Hall, 15 Talbot Avenue

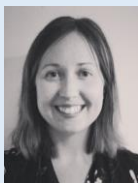

Denise Chin (MA 2014) is a Senior Research Assistant in the Director General's Office at the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) in Washington, DC. IFPRI provides research-based policy solutions to sustainably reduce poverty and end hunger and malnutrition in developing countries.

Jon Crowe (MA 2010) is a Senior Consultant at Meister Consultants Group (MCG) in Boston. MCG is an international sustainability consulting firm specializing in next generation solutions, with clients in U.S. and across the globe on new strategies in fields such as energy, climate, water, and mobility.

Armando Milou (MA 2008, WSSS) is a GIS Specialist with the International Finance Corporation (IFC), World Bank Group, in Bogota, Colombia. IFC is among the largest international development institutions, focusing exclusively on the private sector in developing countries.

Nicholas Petschek (MA/MALD 2012) is a Senior Consultant in Governance, Culture & Leadership at LRN in Washington, DC. LRN is an information services company helping inspire principled performance in business and governance according to shared values.

Katie Walsh (MA/MALD 2014) is a Cities Manager for CDP's cities program in North America and is based in New York City. Through its global environmental reporting platform, CDP works with firms, investors and cities to ensure environmental strategy is integral to their operations.

Please RSVP by April 22nd using this link